PRESS RELEASE

(February 12, 2016) The Arizona Peace Officers and Standards Board, led by Chairman Sheriff Mascher, held a meeting to discuss concerns voiced by members of the certified community of Arizona Peace Officers including Chiefs, Sheriffs, and Directors regarding the performance of Executive Director Lyle Mann. Discussions of personnel performance are always conducted in Executive Session and Arizona POST does not comment on them. In a subsequent public meeting the Board voted to end Mr. Mann's tenure effective February 12, 2016. Arizona POST has no further comments regarding this issue.
